"These guardrails protect against gerrymandering and reflect the priorities of Fair Districts = Fair Elections. So this is a proposal that involves real governing, both sides giving and taking, and it deserves voter support." Gerrymandering, the manipulation of political districts to unfairly influence elections, leaves Ohioans with uncompetitive congressional races. In 2016, every incumbent won – and by huge margins!

Issue 1 is the result of a rare bipartisan agreement in the state legislature and will be on the ballot in May. We are so polarized right now but Democrats and Republicans came together to address gerrymandering - one of the most partisan issues of our time.
